The zoom call will just be a chance for the boys to see each other so I'll be more or less letting them eat their lunch and have a chat!

I will put all information on seesaw on Wednesday at 9:30am and feel free to message me on Seesaw if you're having any problems.

To all the parents we can try to make this fun by replacing the special parts of the trip with equivalents at home. For example the kids love getting on the bus so if you have a car just drive around the street and come back to the 'zoo' at home! You'd be amazed how much fun little things like this are if you join in the fun! Make them a packed lunch with a few sweets in there - who doesn't love that?!

Most of all, enjoy yourselves!

Mr McArdle
